Rooted in Love

"So that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ"

Ephesians 3:17-18

interpretative trail system as part of the conservation and recreation park on the north end of campus, we will have refurbished our campus from end to end. All this is possible because of the dedication of our supporting constituency, who are like a faithful cloud of witnesses, surrounding our campus with their prayers, good will and financial support.

Our theme for 2006-07 was Rooted in Love, taken from Ephesians 3:17. I hope that your learning and experiences at Redeemer this year have deepened that rootedness in Christ. May this volume bring back wonderful memories and reminders of that journey. And whether you are returning for further studies or beginning a new vocation or program of studies, may this continue to be the basis for all that you are and do.

Im always excited to see another edition of Anno Domini. On behalf of the Redeemer community, I would like to express our thanks to our editor, Ashley White, and the yearbook team for all the work they have done to shape this years edition of Anno Domini, capturing so well what makes Redeemer such a special Christian academic community.

Looking back, we have much to be thankful for as we embarked on our 25th academic year. Once again the Lord has sent us new faculty and staff who share Redeemers vision for relating faith to learning, work and living. We had an enrolment of 858 committed students from across Canada, 9 U.S. states and 9 other countries, representing some 45 denominational backgrounds and a diversity of racial and ethnic groups. As the pages that follow reveal, we enjoyed a wonderful range of activities and events, scholastic, cultural, athletic, social and spiritual enabling us to grow as whole persons. There were also significant opportunities for volunteering, serving and sharing the love of Christ.

We also give thanks to the Lord for improvements to our campus in the 2006-07 academic year. We benefited from the upgrading of our roads, parking, pathways and lighting made possible by the completion of our $11.5 million campus development campaign. This has given our campus a fresh new look outside to match our new library and classroom facilities inside. With the completion of the second soccer field and the

Student Senate President

There is no doubt that this past academic year has been filled with moments of joy and grief, blessings and struggles. Whether it is in making the transition from living at home to living in a dorm, achieving an A on the paper you worked on for two weeks, dealing with the loss of a loved one, meeting new friends, sharing your testimony at Hot Spot, reaching out to the community for comfort and support, break-ins, or contemplating what to do with your future. It is amazing how much change one year can bring to your life. It is easy to rejoice in the Lord at the good times, but it is much harder to do so in the challenging times. Nevertheless, the joy that we all have as Christians is that we have a community for support which helps us to grow in love and faithfulness with God to help us become increasingly rooted.

It is my prayer that the Redeemer student community has been able to accomplish this. This year I have had the amazing privilege to witness the passion of Redeemer students in supporting one another. I have been blessed to witness and partake in the growth of Chapel, Church in the Box, and Small Groups under the coordination of our new Chaplain Dr. Syd Hielema. I have witnessed the graduation of leaders who have been actively involved within the student body during their time at Redeemer. I thank God for the gifts that each and every one of them has shared during their time at Redeemer, as RAs and HAs, varsity or club athletes, Small Group Leaders, club leaders, committee members, and all the many ways that I can't even begin to mention. Finally, it has been a blessing to work with twelve other senators who are each extremely dedicated, passionate, and awesomely refreshing.

This year Student Senate has also had its moments of laughter and struggles. As a focused Senate, we quickly set out with a vision to increase the professional character of the student government. With a new Senate Office, updated bulletin board, and a new website, we not only hoped to look more professional, but also to increase the transparency of what we were doing.

Servant-hood is not just for leaders within the Christian community; as Christians each and every one of us has been called to be a servant. When we become true servants, we experience the blessings of community supporting and building one another so that we may become increasingly rooted in the knowledge of the love of God. I pray that you may continue to be rooted in the love and faithfulness of God wherever He should bring you.

A Day at Redeemer

Work &

This year a new layout of the cafeteria was introduced and new communal ideas, such as Mexican Night, where some students such as Jeff Wynands (above) dressed up in support of the theme. Students also have an opportunity to work on campus which becomes part of their day, getting up early to work janitorial or answering phones in the main office.

P lay

A typical day for a Redeemer student could begin with scraping snow and ice off of your car, walking into school and hanging up your coat before starting your day of classes. After classes there is time to give blood, do groceries and eat communal before heading home to do your school work and start the day again.

As the year progresses, changes can be seen in Redeemer's art gallery. Alternating between student exhibits, class works and collections from outside Redeemer, we are given opportunities to view and experience works by various artists.

Redeemer's Art program has 3 main studio art options including painting, drawing, and 3D design. There are also courses available for Computer Art. Each of the courses offered give students a chance to expand their artistic ability and work with new medium, as you can see with Michelle, Maria, Chelsea, Loretta, and Uria. (counter clockwise)

Off Campus Studies

Students take a chance to study off campus for either a semester or a couple weeks to experience different cultures, and also learn from different teachers in different atmospheres

Studying for a semester in Florence Italy has definitely enriched my artistic and cultural horizons and provided me with an experience that will stay with me throughout and beyond my academic career.

Chelsea Schinkel

The OMSC should be experienced by all, there is so much out there that we don't know about. And so much out there that we still need to learn about.

Randall Benbow

Redeemer provides students with many opportunities to study off campus through different programs, programs pictured above include a semester studying art in Italy, a semester studying English and History in England, a semester studying French in France, and two weeks of seminars in Connecticut for Religion and Missions students.

The time in Paris was an incredible experience for everyone, allowing time to develop language and grammatical skills, expanding horizons, extending experiences, and learning so much in so many areas of life

Also not pictured above are summer programs that are offered to students. These include studying for 5 weeks in Quebec, to fulfill the core language requirement, or for French students, and also studying at Au Sauble, an opportunity for students in environmental studies.

Worship

"I will declare that your love stands firm forever" Psalm 89:2

Worship is a big part of living at a Christian University in community with other believers. It is a unique opportunity we have to be open about our faith which allows us to encourage and support one another. Some opportunities students have to worship include chapel which is once a week, Church in the Box which is held once a month, the Fall Entreat, the Winter Retreat, Hotspot which is also once a month, and also new this year is a prayer room in the school that gives students a quiet place in the school to go that is dedicated to prayer. There has also been weeks of 24/7 prayer where students sign up for one hour time slots, and so there is a week of non-stop praying and worship happening on the Redeemer campus.

Redeemer Staff and Faculty certainly make this university a better and distinct place. They are actively involved in the community of Redeemer and can be seen in many places outside of the classroom, whether they are praying at chapel, going to guest lectures, at poetry readings, going to the banquet, or performing at coffee house. Also with their wide array of knowledge and also their intelligence in their fields they are a useful resource for students who need information on research opportunities, career placements and planning, and also just other questions about their subject knowledge. Certainly Redeemer would not be the same without the staff and faculty that we are blessed with at this institution.

And so...

Dorms 16 and 17 get to know each other at dinner time (above)

The first week of school is an overwhelming time for Redeemer students. The week is packed with events to help students meet new people, or to gather with old friends after a summer apart. The first day involves the long and tedious process of registering, paying, and signing papers. After this, jam-packed vans pull up to the dorms with students belongings. The RA's and HA's are ready and waiting to welcome their friends. This is when the fun begins!

Orientation Week

The first week is a crucial time for first years. They settle into their dorms, meeting RA's and roommates, people that they will spend the next 8 months living with. They also meet their faculty advisor, learn about different clubs and activities at the school, and try to find their way around to their classrooms. Orientation week is a time that tries to aid first years and make it an easy transition.

First year students are separated into FROG groups, each with a FROG leader. Students have an opportunity to meet other students outside of their dorm, and their leader can help give out useful information that they have learned from their time at Redeemer. These FROG groups participate in different activities gaining points for their team. At the end of the week they participate in the FROG olympics, complete with a tug-of-war in a mud pit.

Other activities during the first week, and continuing into the month of September include; Hawaii Aloha, Decade Dance, Super Sandae Sunday, Rockin Bingo and Euchre Tournament, Super Sports Extravaganza, a trip to Niagara Falls, Wonderland, and a Blue Jays game.

During second semester, students had an opportunity to go to Camp Shalom for a weekend retreat. Students spent Friday night, Saturday and Sunday in times of musical worship, listening to seminars, praying and discussing in small groups, eating together, cooking together, and of course playing a lot of fun and weird games together. It is always a time where students can stretch themselves spiritually and also have a chance to meet some new people, or to connect with old friends. The winter retreat is planned by the SASC committee.

Harvest Hoedown

The Harvest Hoedown is an annual event where Redeemer students gather for one night of Western fun. Students dress up in Western attire for a night of square dancing in the cafeteria, mechanical bull riding in the main foyer and various games all night including pie eating, a shoot out and also a prize for the best costume. This event is planned and hosted by the Activities Committee.

Hot Spot is a SASC-run event that is one Thursday a month in the Rec Centre. It is a time when students can gather and have a night of worship. Students request to lead the worship and there is a small devotion or message spoken by a student or guest speaker.

Students gather in the Rec Centre for a time of Worship once a month. Joy Johnson and her dorm led the worship one month (above)

Hot Spot

Students have the opportunity to gather as part of the Redeemer community in worship. This year SASC has tried to do some things differently by encouraging students to give their testimonies and to encourage and support their fellow students in their faith journey. This was a powerful move and encouraged students to be open about their faith.

Cross Culture is an event that has been happening at Redeemer for only the past two years. This year cross culture took place in first and second semester and is put on by H2O. Students sign up and give up their Saturday to go into Hamilton and volunteer doing different tasks at different places. Some organizations that they volunteered with were Living Rock, Philpott Church, Good Will, Salvation Army, Mission Services, Birch and Powell Parks, a community Centre, Habitat for Humanity Restore, Little Bethel, Olive Branch, and Wellington Baptist. Students participated by painting, throwing block parties, and having the opportunity to give back to Hamilton. This was also a way for many students to be encouraged to continue to volunteer at these places.

Hobbies for Hilltop

Hobbies for Hilltop is an auction to raise money for Redeemer's sister school in Nigeria. Students and staff have the opportunity to volunteer different things to put up for auction, and then they bid on items during a designated activity period. Some items include slaves for a day, the presidents chair, a steak dinner, violin lessons, dorm cleaning (perfect for dorm inspection) and many different desserts.

This year Eric O'Neil and Darren Sinke hosted the event that is planned and organized by SASC. They kept things under control as students try to win their bid and as some students try to beat out staff for some popular items.

This hour, which is pretty amusing to watch, raises a lot of money for our sister school which can then help pay for supplies and also pay tuition for students so they may have the chance to attend the university.

Redeemer reaching out through missions

mississippi

A relationship has been developed between Redeemer and the Port Gibson community in Claiborne County over the past 17 years. This little town was established as Gibson's Landing in 1788 and during the Civil War, General Grant refused to burn it to the ground declaring Port Gibson was too beautiful.

Although the main street is charmingly beautiful, as you take a lazy stroll one block from Main Street, the conditions are radically different. There you witness the painful reality that there are a few who have, and the many more who have nothing -- not even a roof that keeps water off a grandma's bed or even indoor plumbing. Josephine Perkins told us, "Some folk don't have kinfolk to build a wheelchair ramp, and so they scarcely come out of their trailers."

When Redeemer arrives, we go over a list of 20 - 30 possible projects and match up our abilities with the requests that are made. We average 6 - 10 jobs during our week there. As we work, we chat, engage the people living in the home, and learn about their lives. We share our joy and energy with them and invite them to a block party that we host, sharing food, fun and the gospel on Thursday of the week. The youth leaders of the church wrote us saying "You all blessed the whole community with the party and you planted many good seeds of faith. Your fire for the Lord is contagious. We plan to distribute your surplus bible related handouts to the 'at risk students' and you know, they are beginning to react to us in a positive manner."

The community there looks forward to Redeemer arriving. We've come to know the people at the lumber yard, the Piggly Wiggly grocery store, the gas station attendants, the people of the United Methodist and the New Christian Fellowship Churches, those who live around the park and the woman with the keys to the park. We brought used hockey sticks and introduced road hockey to the boys in the park. Committing to a community for years has unexpected blessings attached to it. We're welcomed, like family from the unimaginable north. We learn about another culture and people that sing, play, and are grateful and joy-filled even when they have no possessions, and they aren't expecting things any time soon. The joy of the Lord is their strength. What a privilege for us to learn.

CANCUN, MEXICO: This was the second time Redeemer has taken a group to help out at Betania, a church in the local part of Cancun. While there, team members lived with families from the church getting the opportunity to eat their food, live in their homes, and participate in traditional activities. The work this year involved building staircases so future groups could begin working on the second level. This required mixing cement, moving blocks and rocks, shoveling sand, and cleaning up the work area. During the times when they weren't working, team members got to experience Mexican culture through sightseeing, bartering and hanging out with the locals.

HAMILTON, ONTARIO: This trip has a purpose of illuminating the deep needs of the people of Hamilton. Staying at Hughston, St. Baptist church, team members were involved with Living Rock, KidsClub, Robert Land School, and a Hughston St. basketball club for teens. The week was closed off by attending the TRUACITY 2007 Conference at Philpott Memorial Church, looking at how to proclaim Christ in word and deed to the city of Hamilton. It was sponsored by local churches who have come together for the good of the city.

The image of Christ appears on the wall of a Tim Horton's coffee shop triggering a complex reaction from the locals of a small, largely Roman Catholic, town.

"The towns inhabitants are challenged to ask difficult questions about faith, life and love with sometimes moving and sometimes hilarious results."

The Graduating Class of 2007

Saturday May 26 2007 is a day that will stand out in the minds of many Redeemer students, after four, or more long years of hard work, long nights of studying, essay writing, cramming for exams, living in dorms, paying our unforgettable tuition and being a part of Redeemer community, the class of 2007 graduated and accepted their degrees.

Students gathered at 10:30 am in the morning first for a graduation social and then for the ceremony. The weather although threatening to rain held out and students after accepting their degrees went and continued the celebration outdoors.

The yearbook staff would like to extend a congratulations to the graduating class of 2007 honoring them for hard work paid off.

SASC

spiritual activities and services committee

Led by Robyn Hogan, SASC organizes events like Fall Entreat, Winter Retreat, Hobbies for Hilltop, Warm Fuzzy Week, and the increasingly popular Hot Spot evenings of worship.

Chaired by Peter Kranenburg, the Activities committee organizes "events and activities which will provide decent, healthy and enjoyable outlets for the creative energy of the student body" (Senate Constitution). They work to build community, pride and excitement among Redeemer's students through various fun events.

Choir

Choir is a group that runs all year long, under the leadership of Dr. Teeuwsen. These students come together during the week to learn and sing together worshipping God with their music they also get to grow as choir members and grow in their friendships as well. They performed twice at Redeemer, once at Christmas, and once in the spring.

CITB

With a focus on how God is at work in the stories of our lives, the Church in the Box team led monthly worship services for Redeemer and the surrounding community. Wishing to draw the community closer together while learning about God at work in our community, this year saw the debut of "Testimovies," filmed testimonies from both Redeemer staff and students. CITB strived for a wholistic approach to worship as they incorporated various forms of art, prayer, and music into each service and sought to bless the community through collecting offerings for many ministries in the community.

Many people contributed to making these services happen. There were those in the Worship Team, the Prayer Team, the Creative & Expressive Worship Team, the Staff Advisors, the Sound and Design Teams.

The Outdoors Club

The goal of the Outdoors Club is to provide a variety of outdoor activities for interested Redeemer students. Some activities organized this year included horseback riding, hikes, and wall climbing.

A Team

Members of the ATeam (Admissions Team) are responsible for giving visiting students and their parents a positive and honest glimpse into what our university has to offer. They contribute to the Campus Visit Days (and other events) by giving tours of our facilities, helping with various tasks throughout the day, and providing a positive overnight residence experience. This past year the ATeam helped out with 8 Campus Visit Days, the Business Open House and Scholarship Night. Collectively, the team gave over 50 tours and hosting 60-70 overnights visitors. The team is a fun collection of students who are passionate about sharing Redeemer!

Publications

Wonder what really happens in that curtained room at the top of the stairs? Home to the Crown, Minstrel, Anno Domini, and Photography, the Publications Office can be a busy and hectic place. As deadlines approach in the middle of the school year editors and their staff feel as if they live their lives in that little office. Yet they all do it with one common goal, to provide the student body with a quality product that represents in some way the student body and Redeemer.

The Minstrel is Redeemer's creative writing magazine, which features poetry and fiction by Redeemer students. This magazine gives students the opportunity to submit work to be published and distributed at a local level.

Editor: Amyann Faul
Assistant Editor : Teresa DeVries

Amyann Faul worked hard this year to put out two successful editions of the Minstrel which showcased students written work, as well as paintings and photography (above)

Offering a wide range of opportunities for students to develop journalistic, interpersonal, and leadership skills, The Crown is Redeemers student newspaper published six times per semester. Both experienced and inexperienced writers who are interested are encouraged to contact either the Editor-in-Chief or any one of the other staff members, who can provide further details.

SISO

Angie Davids, Nick Schuurman, Jared Dalton, Rebecca Sikkema, Joelle DeHaan, Nelia Schalk, Kristin Vanderveen, Janet Breimer (above)

Volunteering at the Settlement and Integration Services Organization (SISO) was a great way to become a little more integrated with those in the community outside Redeemer. SISO is program designed to help immigrants and refugee youth with homework, learning English, or just to hang out and play games. Soccer is a favourite! Redeemer students often build relationships with and learn about the cultures of those they are working with. The program was held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 3-3:15 till 5:30.

Morning Prayer

Morning Prayer meets at 7:30 am, Monday through Friday and prays together for the life of the school.

tae-kwon do

As a Christian Club we put a special emphasis on being faithful and devoted to our God. In our club we also look to achieve these objectives:

- To promote Christian values and practices
- To develop an appreciation for Tae Kwon Do as a sport and an art
- To achieve physical fitness through positive participation

Pre Sem

This year we focused on forming the character of the pastor and striving to enable our pastoral hearts to flourish. In our meetings we discussed what character traits and skills a pastor must be developing and strove to appropriate them into our lives. We had three pastors come in and talk to the group about various topics surrounding the pastorate such as balancing family time and church time, being a missional pastor, understanding healthy and unhealthy expectations, etc. We also were able to arrange to have 5 of our guys speak in chapel.

Kids Club

Kids Club is a club run by Redeemer students that try to show God's love to kids living in downtown Hamilton. It is run at St. David's Presbyterian church on Tuesdays, and Wentworth Baptist church on Thursdays. At end of the kids' school day, the volunteers gather the kids from the surrounding neighbourhood for a time of games, a Bible story, a craft, snack, and a whole lot of fun!

Though things can get a little crazy with such lively kids, it is truly an amazing experience to see God at work in the lives of both the volunteers and the kids from week to week.

H<sub>2</sub>O

H2O Team exists to see Redeemer students engaged in serving the Hamilton Community. H2O helped raise awareness on campus of needs in the community through the Volunteer Fair, H2O Binder, Social Justice Week, Angel Tree, Food and Clothing Drives. H2O helped expose students to needs in the community through the Hamilton Missions Trip, God's Valentine Outreach, Cross Culture, City Kidz and Good Shepherd Christmas Outreaches. H2O helped support and join together volunteer groups at Redeemer including Kids Clubs, Living Rock and SISO for a Volunteer Appreciation Evening. H2O has also been building bridges the last two years between Redeemer and McMaster Christian Fellowships. H2O Team is full of students who are passionate about Redeemer serving God in the Hamilton community!

Living Rock

Living Rock is a centre downtown for street involved and high risk youth. Living Rock attempts to offer different options to these youth and get them involved in society in a positive way, all the time working in the name of Christ. Redeemer students can volunteer during the evening program which runs three nights a week. Students during Cross Culture also helped out at the Living Rock, and some who stay in the Hamilton area for the summer continue to be involved, what a great way to give back to the Hamilton community.

Teens 4 Christ

Teen Club is a group of inner-city teens from Hamilton who meet once a week for Bible study, crafts, games, sports and fellowship. This club is held at St. Davids church and is devoted to loving the neighbourhood teens by displaying Christ's love, teaching God's word, and building friendships. This year the club was lead by Amy Klumpenhower, Robyn Hogan, Brad Melle, Jordan Burgsma and Danielle Weesjes.

Men's Soccer

With a team full of talent, the men's soccer team started the season full of promise. The games they played did not disappoint. While they narrowly missed making the playoffs, they played an excellent season, giving Royal's fan exciting soccer matches to start off a school year. The team says good bye to several key players this year, including keeper and captain Darren Sinke and striker Nick Bokma and wishes them all the best in their future endeavours.

A healthy combination of veteran's and freshmen fueled a solid soccer team for the Redeemer women this year. Like the men's team they missed making the playoffs by only a few points, leaving them hungry for a successful season next year. Captain Rachel DeGroot and midfielder Heidi Bentum leave the Royal's soccer club this year, but the team has a lot of potential in it's up and coming players.

Men's Volleyball

The men's volleyball team was a powerhouse for Redeemer this year, finishing the regular with a 7-4 record. They entered the playoffs and played games against Fanshawe, Humber and Niagara. Though they lost the first two, they beat Niagara in 3 games to place themselves in a position to win the bronze medal. Unfortunately, they were overpowered by Fanshawe in the bronze medal game and had to settle for fourth. Three members, Dave Berghout, Matt Groot and Kyle Kloostra graduate this year, and the Royal's are grateful for all of their hard work over the years.

Women's Volleyball

Led by Coach Chris Wiersma, the women's volleyball team had a strong season this year, finishing off with a record of 10 wins, 5 losses, and placing third in the West Division. During the playoffs, they beat Georgian in the qualifiers, but lost to Nipissing in the quarter finals, removing them from any further playoff action. Charis Byl, Lydia Miedema, and Ashley Stoter graduate from the Royal's volleyball this year, allowing for freshman and sophomore players to step and enter leadership positions on next years team.

Men's Basketball

This years men's basketball team consisted of 8 freshmen players and only 4 veteran faces returning to the lineup. Despite this seeming disadvantage, the freshmen proved to be a powerhouse of talent. Though their record didn't show it, the men worked extremely hard during the course of the season, losing several games by only a few points. They begin now to look ahead to the future and the prospect of a successful season next year.

Mike Soluk goes up for an easy two points while Stefan Zelenovic gets prepared for a possible rebound.

Nick Bokma sets up at the foul line for a shot with Mike Hutten eagerly awaiting a possible rebound.

Macieo Justice looks for a pass. Macieo was a later addition to the Redeemer team, joining up in January, and his skills and physical presence were appreciated by all those on the team.

Women's Basketball

Co-captain Kara McCarthy pauses to let her team get open for a pass in hopes of setting up a team mate for a shot.

With very few of their veteran players returning, the women's basketball team faced a year of intense rebuilding. Tryouts produced a small, but dedicated group of girls who were more than willing to play. Under the leadership of Coach Dyck and captains Angela Wiersma and Kara McCarthy, the team managed to have a enjoyable year, coming together to build a solid core of players to come together again next year.

Anno Domini

In the Year of Our Lord

The 2006-2007 school year has come to an end and as students move on we take an opportunity to look back and reflect on the year. Anno Domini strives to help students by portraying a truthful glimpse into the events, clubs and memories from the year past.

This year the committee tried to focus on standing firm in the faith, and highlighting various parts of the Redeemer community. We hope we did a good job at capturing what it was like to be a part of the Redeemer community in 2006-2007.

I'd like to thank everyone who contributed to this yearbook. I would like to specifically thank the entire yearbook team, without who this book would not be possible.
